Reflections from Father Tom

Voice in the Desert

Kierkegaard, one of the modern existentialistic philosophers, narrates 'a story of a clown who was on a tour with his circus group. The preparation was grand and the circus was about to begin. Soon there broke out a fire in the camp. The clown went out to announce to the audience about the fire and asked them to take security measures. But the people just laughed the more serious he got about the fire more they laughed. He warned the people again, but nobody took him seriously. Being a clown, the people took his words for fun. But in reality the fire spread out more quickly than expected with disastrous consequences'.

This is exactly what happened when the John the Baptist preached to the people. They looked at the messenger not the message. As Jesus himself said, "John came neither eating nor drinking and they said, 'He is possessed by a demon'. The son of Man came eating and drinking, and they said 'Look, he is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners.' (Mt 11:17-18)". People judged John the Baptist by his costumes (appearance) more than by his message and they thought he was a clown. Jesus was judged by his association rather than the truth in his message. Similar to the story above, we sometimes take the prophets and religion as clowns. Kierkegaard was actually depicting the present religious situation of the world. He saw how secularism was rampant and religious values undermined in the society. He saw a society that was consumed by consumerism and confused with conflicting values. Religious leaders seem to lose their credibility with the result that they often are considered as the clowns. People do not take them seriously when important message are communicated. Leaders' visions and missions become meaningless without faith.

The Gospel message reflects the similar message that I have mentioned above. John the Baptist said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the desert, 'make straight the way of the Lord'. He acknowledged who he was and who he was not. He said he was just the voice; and the one to come was mightier than he. How do we listen to the voice of John and how do we prepare for Christmas? So let us make our spiritual path straight with faith as our light.

Parish Communal Reconciliation Service

Wednesday, December 13
6:30 pm

Reconciliation Join in communal prayer to ask God's forgiveness for all that separates us from the love of God and one another. Advent is a season to anticipate joyfully the coming of Christ incarnate into our hearts. With great gratitude we seek the gift of forgiveness! All are welcome.

Other Communal Reconciliation opportunities near by:

Dec 14, 7 pm at St Joe's in New Hope

Dec 16, 10 am at St Bridget's in Minneapolis

Liturgy

"Deck the Halls"

We will be preparing the environment for Christmas in church this year in two phases. Come help out either Sunday, December 17th after the 10:00am mass AND/OR Sunday December 24 after the 10:00am. The Fourth Sunday of Advent is the same day as Christmas Eve. As these are not the same liturgy, all the elves will be very busy that day. Call or email Christina if you are able to help!

Christmas Choir

Carols, music and singing is a favorite tradition for many during the Christmas Season. If you would like to join the choir for caroling at 4:00 pm and sing for the 4:30 pm mass on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day 10:00 am, please contact Christina. All ages and abilities welcome!

Mass Intentions

Mass Intentions are offered at Mass in thanksgiving, for the intentions of another person (such as birthday or anniversary), or, most commonly, for the repose of the soul of someone who has died.

Please call the parish office to schedule your Mass Intentions.

Christmas Memorials

We invite you to remember a loved one, living or deceased, with a donation to the Christmas church environment.

Please enclose your contribution in a "memorial gift" envelope, print the name of your loved one being remembered on the envelope and return the envelope in the collection at mass. Memorial names will be in the January bulletin.

Stewardship

As we come to the end of the calendar year, we will soon be totaling our charitable contributions amongst other documents to prepare our annual tax return. Please prayerfully consider your financial contributions to the parish. Are you current on your stewardship pledge for 2017? December is the time to make your pledge current. The parish depends on your support, both physically and financially to maintain and grow parish programs.

IRA Disbursements: Ask how you can benefit by directing your IRA minimum distribution to St. Margaret Mary Parish.

Gifts of Stock to St. Margaret Mary can provide you with DOUBLE TAX BENEFITS. First, you may be able to claim a charitable contribution donation in the amount of the current market value of the stock (original cost plus any increase in value). Second, you avoid paying taxes on the appreciated value of the donated stock.

In order to have these contributions for your 2017 tax return, please start the process now. Please consult your tax advisor for complete details.

Religious Retirement

The elderly religious need your help. There are more than 32,000 senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests living in the United States. They served us well through sacrifice, prayer and love and now they need our support to help fund medications and nursing care. Please be as generous as possible. Thank you.
